French Boudoir

Special Presentation : Episode TFB-S -- More Projects >

Architect Richard Robertson shares a peek at an elegant French bathroom. A curved limestone staircase sweeps down into this space, which exudes elegance and wealth, taking full command of the room's design. Pink marble walls are contrasted against the golden butter tub. Marble pilasters and the 24 karat trim draw the eye up.

Stone for the walls and vanities was specifically quarried to match the hue of this antique fireplace.

Fixtures on the bathtub are made of rose quartz shaped like the fleur-de-lis, an emblem of the French monarch.
