

The Era

Trousdale in the first part of the 21st Century has been a story of Rebirth and Rediscovery. The rise/fall/rise of the enclave's appeal is analogous to style in fashion and film as well:

- The James Bond film franchise was huge in the 60's, went through a rough, dubious patch in the 80's/90's and now is back, bolder and more vital than ever.
- Every top fashion house - from Courreges to Dior to Gucci to Pucci - has enjoyed the same renaissance. They're being rediscovered by waves of today's fashionistas, some even merit Museum exhibitions.
- The swinging cool of the Rat Pack once again reigns supreme. The Brazilian sound still sambas strong. Shirley Bassey belting out "Goldfinger" was on every Trousdale turntable in 1964; though today she's Dame Shirley Bassey, thank you - and now, CD players and iPod docks are what's sending her cover of Pink's "Let's Get this Party Started" reverberating through those very same hills.

The final major section may well be the splashiest: a deluxe portfolio of fantastic recent remodels and new designs, plus some remarkably well-preserved originals.

Architects, Designers & Stylemakers:

- Kelly Wearstler
- Brad Dunning
- Marmol Radziner
- Carole Kattelman
- Billy Rose w/ Assembledge+
- Steve Hermann
- Stephen Shortridge
- Donna Livingston
- John BerCSI
- Richardson Robertson III
- Swift Lee Office
- Scott Unger

Notable Residents:

- Courtney Cox & David Arquette
- David Spade
- Jennifer Aniston
- Hedi Slimane (Creative director, Christian Dior)
- Tina Sinatra
- Matthew Perry
- Ringo Starr & Barbara Bach*
- Matthew Rolston (photographer)
- Sally Hershberger (Hair stylist to the stars)
- Martin Hoppus (Blink 182)
- Jeff Hyland (Real Estate Mogul)
- Steven Meisel (fashion photographer)

*pending research verification

former Trousdale resident

 Trousdale resident

- home
- history
- 1950s
- 1960s
- 70s-90s
- today
- more
- endorsements
- contact the author